

Here are some things that past interns have said about the Navy's Animal Care and Training Internship:

“This internship is a great way to see what it’s actually like working with marine mammals. A lot of people don’t realize how hard trainers work (both physically and mentally) to train their animals.” – Summer 2014 Intern

“I have done a previous marine mammal internship before, and I feel like I learned soooo much more here with the NMMP. I’m very happy with my experience and I feel like I have grown a lot in the past few months in regards to marine mammal care and training.” –
Summer 2014 Intern

“This internship has definitely taught me a lot and has showed me that this is exactly what I want as a career. This internship is very well structured and realistic.” – Summer 2014 Intern

“This program is so well-rounded and is connected to so many pioneers in marine science that not only are you getting experience but you can network and meet such a range of people.” –
Fall 2014 Intern

“This was the most rewarding experience I have ever had. I feel that I have learned so much about the field in such a short period of time. I would do it all over again in a heartbeat.” –
Fall 2014 Intern

“This opportunity has been the best experience of my life and I have learned so much. I have gained not only career knowledge, but friendships and an even deeper passion for the field!” –
Fall 2014 Intern

“I personally think it’s the best one out there. You meet a ton of new people including a great group of interns. So much valuable hands on experience and so many different people to learn from.” – Spring 2015 Intern

“During the internship I learned so much from different trainers, and a lot about myself professionally.” – Spring 2015 Intern

“This internship gave me the opportunity to see everything that happens in this field of work, and not just the fun stuff but the details of diet prep, training plans, record keeping, and cleaning.” – Spring 2015 Intern
